MR. WETMORE'S FETE CHAMPETRE! IN HONOR OF

GEORGE PEABODY!

IMMENSE GATHERING OF THE FASHION AND WEALTH OF AMERICA! 3000 Guests present!

THE YACTIT SQUADRON.

Muste by the Germanians. 800 CARRIAGES. &c. &c. &c.

We cannot in the haste in which we are obliged to furnish this report, expect to do any justice to the magnificent entertainment which, as we write is just closing. Any attempt to describe it upon paper, must necessarily be a failure, but we hope hereafter in a more deliberate report to lay before our readers as perfect a description of this grand fete as possible.

The Yacht Club, that was to have had its annual ragetta in the barbor of New Bedford, (contrary to the dictates of common sense we grant, while our harbor exists) postponed its sailing day to be present, and the whole fleet bearing hundreds of invited guests, was moored in our harbor-a more beautiful spectrule is rarely witnessed than these three score tiny, but beautiful vessels, flocked together in our charming bay. They consist of the Seh. Widgeon bearing the broad pennant of Com. Edgar, who governs the fleet by means of a system of signals. The Widgeon is 101 Tons burthen. The Sch. Favorita, owned by A. C. Kingsland, 135 Tons, Sch. America, D. C. Kingsland, 70 Tons. Sloop Rebevca, J. G. Bennett, 77 Tons. Sloop Una, Duncan 67 Tons. Sch. Sewdrift, S. S. Halbrook, 63

Schr Sylvie, W. A. Stebhens 105 tons. Sloop Gertrude, L. Spencer, Esq., 93 tons. Stoop Spray, 35 tons. Schr. Haze, Moses H. Grinnell, Esq., 87 tons. Sloop Madgie, 87 tons, R. F. Loper Phila, Sloop Island Farm, C. F. Cromwell, 17 tons .-Schr. Norma, owned by the Messra. Majors. Sloop Minnic, W. H. Thomas, 60 tons. Sch. Volunte, G. G. Hammond 46 toos. Schr., Mystery, O. A. Sloop Roman, 40 tons. Sloop Scud, 50 tons. Schr Oriental 40 tons Ella, 50 tons. The vice Commodore E A Stevens, owns the celebrated Maria. So fine or well appointed a fleet does not float on American waters, and considered as guests to the grand fete, they are worthy of the extended notice we have given them.

For days the fashionable world has been in a flutter of preparation. The dress makets, mantua makers, milliners, dry goods men and the makers of those ten thousand things for which a man knows no name, but which aggregated make the fishionable, fascinating woman, those Bitle trifles that with a background of rosy checks and beaming eyes, take our unwilling hearts by storm, have kept ten thousand fingers busy for the past week. Stewart has sold hundreds of magnificent dresses, and an exhaustive run has been kept up on the elastic productions of Alexandre, and Bijon. Speculations regarding the weather too that most uncertain of all the mutabilities of our lot, were rife, and many were the pouts, from rosy lips, which greeted the breezy, lowering, cloudy day; but the abused day wore on, the crowd assembled, and the fair guests suddenly discovered that nothing could be better for a fete champetre, than the very breezes, and clouds, they so heartly regreated. In fact a more perfect day could not have been; a fresh cool breeze wept over the Island, and the filiny clouds that but half concerled the sun, held a most releame sun-shade over exposed complex ons. When we visited the grounds the mests had not begun to arrive, and we exmined the admirable arrangements which ad been made for their accomodation; from he immease piazza of the main house, which vas entirely enclosed was a passage way to feet wide, and 175 feet long leading to he descing room, or tent, which covered an rea of 80 feet square, and was perfectly cored for dancing. A few feet further east, vas another teat, 25 by 50 wet, devoted olely to refreshments, besides a tent for heir preparation, and numerous small ones, or parties of guests.

On the immense grounds 40 acres in extent were scattered acores of ottomons.-The preparations inside the tents were of the most liberal and extravagant character, a profesion of grapes, the Catawba, Isabella and White Wine, of Figs from the greenhouse, Peaches, Apricots, Nectarines, were in abundance, and every viand, fish, flesh and fowl, that nature produces or art invents. Oysters and game of every kind fellied, sauced, wined, decorated, and bedezined by the canning hand of Downing. There was no want either of Spirits-we do not now refer to that "natural flow" of which poets speak, but the spirit of wine, that which Shakespeare, had it been nameless would have called "Devil"—Champagne, Claret, Roman Punch, Whiskey Punch, Orange Punch, and various Sangarees were omnipresent, so mingled, with the rich juices of fruits, and laden with fragrance, that the heart of a stoic would soften in their presence, and their aroma would be guile the senses of the Maine Law itself.

There were policemen stationed around the place, to regulate the movements of the masses of visitors, and to protect them from the predatory incurcions of the light fingered. We then went within, and so splendid a sight we have never beheld, the mignificent parlors were throughd with the more quiet guests, many of whom had pass ed the age of active gayety, and were simply lookers on,-the rooms themselves are extremely beautiful; the decorations in fresco and gold are chaste, and tasteful, the curtains and stuffs are of the richest and finest materials, and both the furniture, carpets, ornaments and chandeliers, give evidence of refined taste, and lavish expenditure. The vast piazzas were filled with promanaders, and though every available spot seemed occupied, there was still a line of carrages, seemingly a quarter of a mile long, filled with other guests. Going still farther on to the passage way we found it thronged with guests, and the vast tent almost unconfortably full; there were certainly not less than two thousand in this room alone, and fully three thesiand guests present. The effect was exceedingly fine, and it is rarely in this country that so large and select a company has been gathered upon any occasion. In fact we believe it to be admitted that it was the grandest entertainment ever gotten up in the country, and it is almost incredible that no accident no mistake of any kind occurred out that all the admirable arrangements were fully carried out. Dancing commenced about 4 o'clock and was kept up with but an occasional pause until 7 o'clock, the following being the programme :

1 Coronation March, Strauss Son.

2 Grand Overture, Zampa, Herold. 3 Fete Champetre March, Schultze, ORDER OF DANCES.

1 Polka, Aesculap, Strauss Son; 2 Waltz, Ball Geschichten, Strauss: 3 Quadrille, Bijouterie. Musard; 4 Polka Redo va , Belle vue, Bergmann; 5 Les Lanciers, original; 6 Gallop, New Champagne, Lumbye; 7 Waltz, Nixen Tonze, Lanner; 8 Quadrille, La Militaire, Strauss; 9 Polsa Redowa, Annie, Schultze; 10 Police, Louisen, Bergmann; 11 Les Laneiers, original; 12 Waltz, Aether Træume, Strauss; 13 Gallop, Brightest Eyes, Schultze; 14 Quadrille, Handel's Elite, Strauss Son: 15 Polka Redowa, Brasher, Helmsmuller, 16 Waltz,

Myrthen Krænze, Srtauss. The music was by the Germania Musical Society, ably conducted by Mr. William Schultze, and formed one of the chief attractions of the evening-there were 21 performers. The dancing was spirited and graceful, and we have rarely noticed so large a number of elegant and tasteful costumes. Although in such a maze of beauty and magnificence, it is quite impossible to select the most beautiful or the most magnificent, we cannot rescain from noticing the following ladies, who were dressed comme il faut .-It any bachelor's heart withstood the maidenly smiles of vesterday, or failed to learn a lesson o contentment from the beaming eyes of the hundreds of better halves, it must be adamantine indeed. We noticed, among many others:

Viewed as a whole, the Fete Champetre of August 10th was a complete success, and is without doubt incomparably the grandest private entertainment ever given in the country. More than three hundred carriages were in attendance, and many of them made three or four trips to the city, it being impossible to provide a sufficient carriage accommodation for the vast assemblage. Omnibusses were running to and fro, and bundreds were forced to avail themselves of their demogratic conveniences. All carriages passed in regular succession agress the lawn to the rear, or covered enterance, where the guests alighted, and after repairing to the dressing rooms, passed on to the reception hall, where Mr. Wermore received his guests very cordially, and presented them to Mr. George Penbody, (the American Banker in London,) in whose honor this entertainment was given. They then passed on to partake of the festiviales awaiting them. The tents and tables were gayy decorated with flags and streamers, and ve noticed the "Stars and Stripes" and the Union Jack" floating side by side.

It is almost unnecessary to say that the music of the Society was delightful; the sweet strains of their favorite airs are familiar to Newport ears, and we are not "Newport in Summer" without them.

We look forward to the season of fruits. lowers, and Germania music with undivided satisfaction, and always hall their advent with joy, and lament their departure in the sad month when leaves and music depart And then Downing must have his due praise, prince of caterons that help, for hether it was fish, fruit fowl, or ilesh ome grown or exotic, simple or compound was perfectly prepared and admirably erved.

Humble though his profession he, his rastromonic exploits diffused comfact into many hearts, and made us appreciate the music, and flowers, more keenly, and trip with more agility and fervor the light fantastic."

A Hopeful Member.

Among the representatives to Congress, chosen at the late election at Kentucky, appoars the name of James B. Clay, of Ashland. This personage is well known as the son of the late Henry Clay, and on that ground might be supposed to be possessed of some of the elements of greatness and renown. But it ought to be universally known that this same James B. Clay was a leading member of the mobocratic committee, who a few years since broke into Cassius M. Clay's printing-office in Lexington, tore down his press, boxed up his type, and sent them out of the State! And this cowardly and vile outrage was committed at a time when the proprietor of the office was prostrated by what his friends feared at the time would prove a fatal illness. His offence, in the eves of J. B. Clay and his mobocratic associates, consisted in the publeation of a true brave and noble Anti-Slavery paper, called the True American.

Cassius M. Clay was a native and loval son of Kentucky, and was, if we mistake nct, at that time a slaveholder-at all events, he was a very large landed proprietor-and he had become fully satisfied that the slave system was a source of constant damage to all the moral and material interests of his native State. And he felt impelled, as an honest and patriotic citizen, to speak out against it. But free speech and a free press were not to be endured by Mr. J. B. Clay and his associates; so they seize the occasion of the editor's illness, and like sneaking cowards', go and mob his office!

This paltry James B. Clay was a stump speaker for Buchanan last year, in Indiana and that region. He was offered a foreign mission by old Buck-, so it was reported lest spring, but declined. And he is now silected to Congress by a union of the fossil whigs and Sham Democracy of his district. Let the people remember how he has signalized his devotion to free discussion and a

We understand that an effort will soon be made to get a fog bell placed on Point Judith. A petition is now in circulation, we believe for signatures, which will be presented to the Secretary of the Treasury, for the above object. There is no place on our Atlantic coast that needs a fog hell more than on Point Judith. It is a most dangerous point, especially in toggy weather, and no less than four vessels have been ashort at this place, during thick fogs, within the past six months. A captain of one of the past six months. A captain of one of the New York Sound boats, informs us that in passing the point sixteen times during the month last passed, the light was seen but twice, on account of fog, which so much prevails in Long Island Sound.—Providence Post:

James H. Clay proposes to give a splendid harbacue at Ashland, Kentucky, on the 12th inst., in honor of his election to Congress. Gov. Willard and many distinguished gentlemen have been telegraphed to be present. On that occasion several fat bulpresent. On that occasion several fat bullocks will be served up in the most elegant style. It is said there will be ample accommodations for twenty thousand people.-Boston Post.

The sen of Henry Clay goes to Washington to support the administration of James Buchanan and gives a harbacue in honor o the event. To one who knows the relation Litween these two men, no comment can increase the wonder with which the transaction is received,-Prov. Jour.

After fruitless negotiations Col. Nobles appointed the 20th of August to hold a council with the Yanktons to treat for the right of way verose the territory.-New York Tribune.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Hop at the Fillmore House on Tuesday evening, was a brilliant and pleasing affair. The prospect at present for a unusually gay season was never better, and we hope to record during the next six weeks, many of these pleasing and charming affairs, which have done much more for the welfare of our city, as a watering place, than is generally believed.

Among the distinguished beauties present we noticed the following :-- Mrs, J of New York, dressed in white muslin, with Roman ornaments, remarkable for her selfpossession. Mrs Dr L, of Philadelphia dressed in black brocade, with boquets of colored flowers over it, very handsome and ngrecable. Mrs H, of Baltimore, dressed in white brocade flounced silk, scarlet and gold feathers, and surperb diamond-necklace and head-piece, looking extraordinarily elegant, beautiful, and Queen like. Mrs P, of New York, dressed in blue brocade and lace, always affable, and desirous of promoting other's enjoyment. Mrs P. of New York, dressed in a white and crimson silk, with gold and crimson flowers, always unique, and well dressed. Mrs T, of Philadelphia, dressed in red flounced silk, and Roman lace mantilla, an elaborate toilette. Miss R, of New York, dressed in white with blue flounces, and coral ornaments, belle of New York, and very lovely. Miss O, of New York, white dress with blue ornaments, the most beautiful blonde on the Island, a fair representative of morning. Miss P, of New York, in blue, with blue flowers, a great heiress, and very pretty. Miss II, of New York, dressed in a plaid pink silk, she looks very confiding when dancing. Miss II, of Baltimore, dressed a mode colored silk with coral ornaments, very piquante, and agreeable. Miss K, of New York, dressed in white tarleton with scarlet flowers and coral, a becoming toilette selected from her fifty dresses. There were also present-Misses W, of New York, Misses II, of Baltimore, Miss H, of New York, Miss L, of Baltimore, Miss I, of Philadelphia, Miss C, of Georgia, Miss S, of New York, Mrs W, of Baltimore, Mrs T, of Philadelphia, Mrs Col L, of Philadelphia, and Miss M, of France, We should have been pleased to have written a still further report, but our want of time prevented us from getting further information.

The third Annual Report of the "Southern Aid Society" lies before us. From the statement therein presented, we are convinced of the increasing prosperity and usefulness of that association. Devoted as it is to Home Missionary purposes, with especial reference to the wants of the South and South West,-its success is dear to the heart of Philanthropy and worthy endeavors of Christian Zeal. The necessity of such an enterprise arose from the marked destitution, in the southern portions of our country, of men and means for the furtherance of religious ministry and religions instruction. Prompted by pious and generous motives, large hearted individuals of New England and of the Northern States generally, have contributed freely to hasten the removal of so sad a condition. the receipts of the society are yearly enlarging. Extended charity is solicited from the churches of New England. Remittances of money or drafts intended for the society, should be sent, without further notice, to save the expense of collecting agents, to Rev. LUTHER FARNHAM, Secretary and Treasurer of the same, at No. 5 Tremont-street, Boston, to whom application may be made to preach on the subject.

TOUr readers will bear in mind the Grand Concert to-night by Mr. Russell .-By desire Mr. R. will sing in addition to the Programme in another column the, following songs: "The Newfoundland Dog." To We learn that there is to be a Fair in the Vestry-room of St. Matthew's church, Jamestown, Island of Canonicut, on Tues_ day, August 18th, commencing at elevan o'clock a. m., and continuing until sundown. Rev. Mr. Anthony, the rector of the church. is a most estimable man, and receives very little compensation for his labors. We hope a goodly sum will be raised for his benefit at the Fair.

Those of our friends who want to buy anything in the Fancy Jewelry line will do well to call on Mr. B. H. Tisdale at his store No. 116 Thames-street, Mr. T., has a large and admirably selected assortment of Jewelry, Oil Paintings, and Engravings, together with a large stock of fancy articles suitable for ladies use.

The Cunningham family have received orders to quit the house in Bond street, and tradesmen from whom two weeks ago the fin niture was obtained, (on credit,) which manure was obtained, (on creum) which was then moved into it, we preparing to remove it immediately, as they do not anticipate much probability of their being paid for the count. There has been some talk of or the same. There has been some talk of a subscription being raised for the children. Dr. Ubl promises $100, and several other gentlemen have expressed their willingness to contribute. In a few days they will be without a Lome. - N. Y. Zimes.

GENERAL NEWS.

Correspondence of the Darly News. New York, Aug. 11, 1857.

MR. EDITOR :- There is profound sigdificance in a remark of the illustrious Govthe, one of the great lights of German liternture. "The great, the wise, says he, are never in a unifority; wisdom and greatness pertain only to a select few." True! Look where we may, in this world of ours-if we observe carefully, we shall not fail to see that the German sage is right. There is plenty of unwisdom and folly-any quantity of meanness and wrong, and consequent unhappiness; but if you seek for the truly wise, the nobly great, and the greatly good, you shall go long ere you find them-yet, if you are, at last; so fortunate as to discover one of these noble souls, it shall well reward your search. One does not need to live very long in a great city, ay or in a small one either, to feel the force of these reflections.

The transcendent quack, of the New York Herald, has come out with a new dose for the gullible public, in the shape of what he calls a "Family Herald" being a mere re-hash of the slang and falsehood of his daily humbug, set off with an extragarnishing of love and murder, poison and suicide—anything whereby to catch the gaping crowd, and pick their pockets. And there is a great rush of the "fools and blind" to get hold of that rarest and most wonderful of all publications, the "Family Herald"which, being interpreted, meaneth, a paper that is not fit to come into any decent man's family.

By the way, it is not many weeks since the Herald man deliberately sat forth to the public, (and I think he had to swear to it, in order to swindle away the Post Office advertising from another journal,) the allegation that his regular daily circulation was above 70,000 copies. At all events, the allegation was repeatedly made in the Herald. One story, they say, is good, till another is told. Here is the other. During the last week, I am assured by one who knows, a reliable outsider had the opportunity and curiosity, one night, to make an actual und patient enumeration of the revolutions of the cylinder of the Herald press, and he affirms that the whole and total edition of the paper for the ensuing day was neither 70 thousand nor 60 thousand, nor yet 50 thousand, but only 48 thousand and a fraction !-which is still 48 thousand to many, but it is some 22 thousand less than the great quack had falsely pretended his circulation to be. So much for Herald veracity.

But we have some wise and great editors in New York beside Bennett-yea, and wise lawyers, too. Some of these gentry are giving very confident and brilliant opinions in regard to the new Cunningham developement-I mean the Baby case-to the effect, that in the palpable attempt to produce a fraudulent heir to poor Burdell's estate, Mrs. C. has committed no legal offence: and again-that Dr. Uhl and District Attoncy Hall, in the course they pursued for the detection of madame in her very ingenious and elegant operation, did in fact commit a very grave and serious offense against morality, if not against the law! And these sagacious editors and counsellors are filled with horror at such sad conduct, on the part of the Doctor and District Attorney.

A brief but practical commentary on the wisdom of these learned pundits, was yester_ day exhibited by Justice Davison, in refusing to admit Mrs. Cunningham to builthe Justice holding her to be unquestionably guilty of a high offense against the laws of the State.

The Police Board, having got tired and healed with ineffectual efforts to choose a commissioner in Mr. Draper's place, have adjourned to the second Monday in September, leaving the city meanwhile with only about one-half the usual police force. This half, however, may prove quite as effective for the preservation of the public peace, as all Mayor Wood's force used to be. And that would not be saying much for it. There is said to be dull times in the S market, nearly all the leading Railroad se curities being greatly depressed,

The shipments of specie from this port, last week, were upwards of two millions of dollars, chiefly to Liverpool, Havre and Bremen. The total exports of specie from New York since 1st of Jan. last, are $28. 455.308.

The aggregate mortality of the city last week was 551,—being 20 greater than the previous week. Men 72, women 79, children 400. Deaths last week in Philadelphia 301. RAMBLER.

THE PRICE OF BREAD .- At a time when complaints of the high prices of provisions are so numerous and just, it may not be amiss to refer to the relative quotations of flour and bread. An intelligent correspon-has furnished us with the following:

"A barrel of flour will make 300 lbs. of bread; 4800 ounces. A four cent loa weighs 10 ounces, and they are consequently 480 four cent loaves made out of every har-rei of flour, producing to the laker $19,20 per barrel, when manufactured. The price of best bakers flour ranges from $8 to 8,50 per barrel—consequently the profit is $10-70, from which, however, are to be paid the expenses of laking, wages, rent &c. On the other hand, much sour and inferior flour is used in mixing, which turns the scale of profit considerably in favor of the bakers." This is a subject in which all classes, and especially the poor, are interested—for with them bread is indeed the ataff of life—Doubtless, some of our bakers act conscientiously and justry, but there are others, we fear, who pursue a course exactly the reverse.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

NOMETHING NEW EVERY WEEK. Testimony in favor of Prof. O. J. WOOD'S Hair Restorative Voluntary Certificates, of which one will be published every week.

No. 1.

VINGENNES, IA., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD:—As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using other Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vistly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and lexture, giving it a bealthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dross on which it drops. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours, WILSON KING. Beware of articles purporting to produce "results similar," as they are only abortive attempts to palm off a miserable article on the popularity of this, under a different name! O. J. These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—anon follows Loss of Power, Fattity, and Epileptic Fits—in one of which the patient may expire. Who cannot say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those directed diseases—Insantity and Consumption! The records of the Insune Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destinte—neither mirth or grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.

This truly wonderful scientific compound is recommended by the most eminent and learned physicians of all Europe and America, and enjoys the best reputation of anything similar ever offered. It is without doubt, the best most efficient and generally acknowledged remedy against cholera, dysentery, diarrhoes, and complaints of the siomach in general. The numerous patients who have tried it according to directions have invariably found relief in a very short time, and the best proof of it is, that since this standard remedy was introduced in the armies of the Allies in the Crimen, the mortality of the soldiers from cholera and similar diseases was diminished by over 75 per cent.; in consideration of which, the inventor was presented by the Prench and, English governments with a gold needal, hearing the inscription "Hail! M. Leroux, the great chemist and inventor, by whose knowledge our armics are preserved from cholera."

This invainable preparation is also a remedy for billiousness, indigestion, weakness, and general derangement of the stomach. Upon being taken, it creates appetite, and prevents the heaviness attendant upon cating by persons who are dyspeptic.

In this city, also this remedy has been tried with the most undombted success, and the undersigned can produce the best testimonials of our most celebrated physicians, as to its immediate and complete success, which he will be happy at any time to show to any that may wish to see them.
